

RECRUITING

Diagnosis	Study title	Summary	Epworth locations	Epworth Principal Investigator
Suspected diagnosis of pancreatic cancer or cholangiocarcinoma	The Victorian Pancreatic Cancer Biobank (VPCB)	The VPCB collects biospecimens to facilitate research focused on improving pancreatic cancer outcomes	Epworth Richmond	Dr Peter Tagkalidis
Pancreatic Cancer	Molecular Screening and Therapeutics Program (MoST)	The MoST study uses genomic technology to characterise molecular changes in a patient's cancer that may help to identify a targeted therapy	All Epworth sites	N/A
Unresectable pancreatic cancer	An Observational Study following Circulating tumour DNA during multi-Agent Therapy in PDAC (OSCILLATE)	The OSCILLATE study investigates whether DNA released by tumour cells can be used to predict disease response throughout treatment	Epworth Richmond, Epworth Freemasons, Epworth Eastern	Dr Allan Zimet
Suspected diagnosis of pancreatic cancer	SCANPatient	The SCANPatient study aims to determine whether a standardised reporting template will result in more accurate diagnosis of localised pancreatic cancer to improve delivery of care.	Epworth Richmond and Epworth Freemasons	Mr Julian Choi